Parnes's Bureau was dishonest about the reasons for his unsuccessful bids to join the Gender Police Academy. He is limited to one disciplinary proceed that on emergent circumstances caused the issue, however, subsequent investigation revealed the emergent circumstances had not occurred. This resulted in his dismissal from the academy for several rules in violations, including Rule 2.4.1 in which states that recruits are prohibited from 'Lying or Telling Falsehoods'. Based on the academy investigation, sustained charges were identified within the Records Police Department Rules and Regulations. However, Retired Parnes resigned prior to PFS charges being raised.
